

Sample interview questions:

1. In 60 seconds, what is Cosmic Consciousness about?
2. You try to meld spiritual and scientific fact together, why?
3. Tell us about the main character, Engella Iblis. Why did you choose a female character as lead?
4. In the book, you speak of corporate conglomerates controlling more and more aspects of our lives. Is the book a reflection of the society we have become?
5. The book reveals the existence of the collective unconscious, which speaks to us through our dreams. Tell us more.
6. What would be the cost of having our lives controlled, wouldn't it simplify things?
7. You've created a dream universe around Carl Jung and Carlos Castaneda's vision, tell us more.
8. Not many authors have explored this road in the guise of an adventure. It often is presented under more esoteric views. Why choose this path?
9. You don't really suggest any path to follow as each character follows their own evolution, how do you expect your message will be interpreted?
10. Where do you see this book going? A trilogy, a movie, etc.?